Customer Reviews

This is a really lovely adult coloring book with more interesting designs to offer than the common mandalas and floral/paisley patterns. Each of the ~50 coloring pages has an animal pattern, ranging from big creatures like bears and elephants to smaller things like fish and butterflies. I also think it has a bit more variety in time/effort commitment compared to other adult coloring books. Some of the animals have small, detailed patterns to color in for when you want to recreate those childhood memories of sitting down for a while with a huge set of colored pencils, and others are more simple for when you just want a quick way to wind down and relax. All of the lines are neatly printed with black ink, so you can appreciate the patterns without any printing errors, smudged/unclear lines, etc. The pages are single sided, so you don't have to worry about your coloring of one image being visible on the next one or putting indentations into the pages. For extra protection, you can place a paper or cardboard "shield" between the pages while coloring, but to be honest I don't really think it's needed. Even for the pages that I did with felt tip marker pens, the paper was thick enough on its own that the ink didn't bleed through. The physical book itself is also high quality. The cover image is as pictured, although it actually looks better in person due to the gloss and quality printing. The binding is secure with no loose pages, excessive wear/creases, etc. It's clearly printed and bound so that it can actually hold up through hours of coloring. So overall, I'm really happy with this adult coloring book. The images are lovely, and there's a nice variety of complexity so that you can pick one that best suits your mood at the moment.
