Customer Reviews

If one travels across Interstate 20 from Atlanta to Augusta, this is the perfect little town to visit. The Southern town that was not burned by Sherman. The book shows many of the beautiful OLD holes which still stand today.

Went to Madison for my Birthday! Saw this book in the shops at full price. Delighted to own it and purchased it at a greatly reduced price from . This book truly represents the Charming Southern Town of Madison. A great gift to myself!

The beautiful town that I grew up in - good job!

The book covers a lovely southern town which survived Sherman's march to the sea.

Beautiful photos of both inside and outside of each home as well as full history of each. A lovely book of a lovely town.
